The Federation of Gay Games & Team Sydney invite you to the 2016 Gala Awards Dinner in Sydney.

For the first time in sixteen years, Sydney will host the International Annual General Assembly of the Federation of Gay Games from October 21-24, with up to 100 delegates from over 20 countries.

The highlight of this event is the Gala Awards Dinner on 24th October. Represent your sport, club or organisation at this unique event and have the opportunity to mingle with gay Olympians, national and international LGBTIQ sporting peers. Plus support the gay and lesbian sporting clubs of Sydney.

Joining us for the evening, and looking forward to meeting YOU, are prominent gay and lesbian Olympians, including:

- Matt Mitcham (Diving gold medalist & 2016 Olympics TV commentator),
- Michelle Ferris (Silver medalist, track cycling),
- Ji Wallace (Silver medalist, trampoline),
- Michelle Heyman (2016 Olympics soccer),
- Daniel Kowalski (Gold medalist swimming)
- Shelley Gorman (Bronze medalist, basketball),
- As well Australian international sports star, Alex Blackwell (Australian National Cricket Team).

Our special guest speaker is the Hon. Michael Kirby AC, CMG, always guaranteed to deliver an informative and entertaining address, as he did at the opening ceremony of the Gay Games in Sydney 2002.

2016 Gay Games Legacy Award Recipients Include

Flying Bats Women's Soccer Club, (Sydney, AUS) as Outstanding Local Women's Organization; Sydney Stingers Waterpolo for Outstanding Local Organization; Caroline Symons, PhD, (Melbourne, AUS) for Social Justice; and Danielle Warby and Matthew Mitcham, both of Sydney, AUS as Local Heroes.

Our MC for the evening is the amazing former ABC radio presenter, journalist, comedian, political commentator and TV host Julie McCrossin. Julie gets people talking and she is renowned for her warmth, humour, intelligence and commitment to social justice; qualities that will certainly be needed to lead the ceremonies of this entertainment packed dinner.

Included in the night will be performances by the outstanding Sydney Gay and Lesbian Choir, who have represented Sydney on the national and international stage for a number of years and the presentation of the 2016 Federation of Gay Games Legacy Awards.
